6 April 2019

Arrival and check-in at Palacio Hotel

From 10.00 Registration (Estoril Congress Centre)

11.30-12.30 Horasis Agora

 (Estoril Congress Centre, Hall)

With the Agora (Ancient Greek for 'open place of assembly'), Horasis provides a platform where delegates can meet, develop their networks and share visions for the future. Participants will sit in circles of eight and discuss topics of their interest: others can sit around and possibly interject.

12.30-14.30 Lunches, Speakers Corner, Cascais Today

Lunch: Protecting our Oceans, Globalizing Support (Room F1)

The ocean as the world's largest ecosystem and source of oxygen is under threat – overfishing, pollution and climate change threaten its health. How to ensure the well-being of marine ecosystems? And how to globalize solutions for our maritime resources?

• Ana Paula Vitorino, Minister of the Sea, Portugal

Chaired by

• Paal Bakken, Founder, Seaweed Energy Solutions, Portugal

Networking Lunch upon Arrival (Estoril Congress Centre, Foyer)

Cascais Today (Media Corner)

Cascais Today is the news programme for Horasis. Join BBC for live discussions with government representatives, business leaders and academicians from around the globe.

Speakers' Corner (Foyer)

The Speakers' Corner will permit talks by enthusiasts who wish to state a point, describe new work, or present an idea.

14.30-16.00 Update Sessions (Estoril Congress Centre)

The update sessions will review developments since last year's Horasis Global Meeting and will assess the critical challenges of various global challenges in the short and long term.

Where are we? Where are we Going? (Room B)

The world's economic and geo-political framework is increasingly characterized by uncertainties. How and to where ought we to navigate? What are the choke-points and how might we redefine them as opportunities to establish confidence?

- Samer Asfour, Director of New Technologies, Royal Hashemite Court, Jordan
- Francisco Pedro Balsemão, Chief Executive Officer, Grupo Impresa, Portugal
- Jan Stael von Holstein, Visiting Professor, Hong Kong Polytechnic, Hong Kong SAR
- Simone Kimpeler, Director, Fraunhofer Institute for Systems and Innovation Research, Germany
- Peter Lorenz Nest, Chief Executive Officer, AAVI Advanced Added Value International, Germany
- Ikram Sehgal, Chairman, Pathfinder Group, Pakistan

With a special address by

- Ana Paula Zacarias, Secretary of State for European Affairs, Portugal

Chaired by

- Robin Niblett, Director, Chatham House, United Kingdom

Open Society Upended (Room C1)

The global rise in populism carries 20 percent of European voters, and has altered global democratic views. Has populism thrived only because democracies let it? What is the future of the Open Society concept? Will we all become more authoritarian? How can we present globalization as a savior for us all?

- Matias Barreiro, Chairman, Cobermed, Argentina
- Pedro Ferreira, Chief Executive Officer, Dominio Capital, Portugal
- Masami Komatsu, President, Music Securities, Japan
- David Nussbaum, Chief Executive, The Elders, United Kingdom
- Sally Schwager, Lecturer and Director, Central European University, Hungary
- Oltmann Siemens, Trustee, Orient Institute, Germany

Chaired by

- Estelle Youssouffa, Presenter, TV5 Monde, France

The Politics of Climate Change (Room C2)

The climate change target is 2030 and still no road-maps for change are produced. How does the geo-politics of fossil fuel production impact on governments? And how do governments attempt to circumvent their targets? What role does Big Business play in guiding policy? Can we eventually control climate change?

- Heaven Bereket, Co-Founder, BaoBabFund, Ghana
- Andreas Gürtler, Foundation Director, EiiF - European Industrial Insulation Foundation, Switzerland
- Petteri Taalas, Secretary-General, World Meteorological Organization, Switzerland
- Mridula Ramesh, Founder, Sundaram Climate Institute, India
- Joseph A. Stanislaw, Senior Partner, Brightstar Capital Partners, USA
- Anders Wijkman, Co-President, Club of Rome; Chairman, Climate-KIC, Sweden

Chaired by

- Bernardo Ferrão, Deputy Editor, SIC Television, Portugal

The Internet in the Era of Globalization (Room D1)

As the reach of the Internet increases digital markets have expanded greatly. As many e- marketers allow for cash transfers how do we ensure fair value, timely delivery and zero fraud? What are there weaknesses vs real markets? Have real brick & mortar markets failed?

- David Berry, General Partner, Flagship Pioneering, USA
- Kemal Brown, President and Creative Director, Digita Global Marketing, Jamaica
- Rui Costa, Chief Technology Officer, Veniam, Portugal
- Nerses Khachatryan, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, IQ Soft, Armenia

- Nigel Roberts, Vice President of Global Associations, LexisNexis, USA
- Victor Sabbia, Chief Executive Officer, Brokerware, Uruguay

Chaired by

- Spriha Srivastava, Deputy News Editor, CNBC International, United Kingdom

AI as the Savior of the Human Race (Room E)

Artificial Intelligence (AI) has seen many optimistic waves; many simply being too difficult to realize. Now with massive, cheap computing power we see AI in a better light but we recognize more of the technical and moral dangers. In what ways will AI enhance our lives? And by when? Will AI ever supersede human endeavor?

- Philipp Gerbert, Senior Partner and Managing Director, The Boston Consulting Group, Germany
- Paul Lee, Co-founder and CEO, Mind AI, USA
- Alex Rodriguez, Co-founder, Nanoboost, Spain
- Ram Shanmugam, Chairman and Founder, AutonomIQ, USA

Chaired by

- tbc

Briefing Session: A Brief History of Globalization (Room D2)

While globalized trade began in the 15th century when Portuguese traders discovered terra incognita the world has recently become prominent. Now globalization is taken to mean the interplay of markets, technology and the state involving complex supply chains. How to assess the effects of globalization across time and geography?

- Alexander N. Chumakov, First Vice-President, Russian Philosophical Society, Russia
- Henri Hie, Professor, Polytechnic University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong
- Pete Klupar, Deputy Chairman, Breakthrough Prize Foundation, USA
- Wilbert Sanchez, Chief Executive Officer, Electro Plastic, Brazil
- Jorge Saraiva, Chairman, Applied Dynamics, Portugal
- Zoran Thaler, Former Minister of Foreign Affairs, Slovenia

Chaired by

- Philippa Thomas, Presenter, BBC World TV, United Kingdom

16.00-16.30 Contact Break (Foyer)

Speakers Corner (Foyer)

The Speakers Corner permit talks by enthusiasts who wish to state a point,

Horasis: The Global Visions Community

Switzerland, CH-8280 Kreuzlingen, Burgstrasse 8, www.horasis.org

phone +41 79 305 3110, fax +41 71 686 50 59, mail richter@horasis.org

describe new work, or present an idea.

16.30-18.00 Update Sessions: Globalization Viewpoints

These sessions will review several aspects liked into globalization that are widely worrying but revising their progress can be seen as opportunities for governments and business leaders. We review what impedes progress.

Globalized Terrorism (Room B)

Terrorism destroys communities. Increasingly we find attacks in one place mimicked in others with the events perhaps claimed by a third party. Can one reason with ideologues, anarchists or nihilists? Why do individuals and families protect terrorists? How to open society to be honorable?

- Vasco Da Cruz Amador, Chief Executive Officer, Global Intelligence Insight, United Kingdom
- Lynn Kuok, Senior Research Fellow, University of Cambridge, United Kingdom
- Venkat Matoory, Strategic Board Advisor, CBA, India

Chaired by

- Nuno Tiago Pinto, Executive Editor, Revista Sábado, Portugal

Non-globalized Fundamentalism (Room C1)

Unravelling modernity and reverting to fundamentals might be worthwhile but unswerving belief in simple notions is retrograde. Where is the fine line to be drawn? How to persuade about modern truths without becoming condescending?

- Sham Bathija, Senior Economic Adviser to the President of Afghanistan, Afghanistan
- Julia Häusermann, Founder and President, Rights and Humanity, Switzerland
- Mirwais Momand, Co-Founder and President, Mido Dairy Production, The Netherlands
- Pajam Sobhani, Executive Officer and Founder, Latest Thinking, Germany
- Mosharraf Zaidi, Campaign Director, Alif Ailaan, Pakistan

Chaired by

- António Mateus, Presenter, Portuguese Public TV (RTP), Portugal

Communism's Global Failure (Room C2)

Following the intellectual fervor of the early 1900's and the Russian Revolution many nations took-up Communism. Most have rescinded its promise. What is its attraction? Can it work alongside Capitalism? What is the concept's future?

- Chris Dooley, Co-founder, A Better Capitalism UN Limited, USA
- Massimiliano Ivol, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Bubble Lens, France
- Margherita Pagani, Founder, Impacton, Italy
- Andrei Sharonov, Dean, The Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO, Russia
- Efi Stenzler, Chairman, Jewish National Fund, Israel
- Anna Maria Tekampe, Artist and Lecturer, University of Siegen, Germany

Chaired by

- Gerhard Elfers, Business News Anchor, Deutsche Welle, United Kingdom

Globalism vs. Populism (Room D1)

Many people have reacted against their government's long-term roles and demanded rights for the people to self-govern. What are the dangers of having governments controlled by amateurs? Can business leaders assume pseudo-control to preserve stability and growth?

- Harry Anastasiou, Professor, Portland State University, USA
- John Blakey, Founder, The Trusted Executive Foundation, United Kingdom
- Netanya Cummings, Research Coordinator, University of Alberta, Canada
- Harald Einsmann, Member of the Supervisory Board, Tesco, United Kingdom
- José Ramón García, Member of Parliament, International Secretary, Partido Popular, Spain
- Gonçalo Lage, Executive Board Member, PME investments, Portugal

Chaired by

- Chris Morris, Correspondent, BBC News, United Kingdom

Entrepreneurism: The Enigma of Taking Risks (Room E)

People who dedicate their lives into a start-up are inherently risk-takers and might ignore reason. How best to advise determined people? What advice might be best for entrepreneurs whose firms are not yet growing but wish to be a global player? Do the individuals get enough mentoring?

- Paulo Andrez, President Emeritus, European Business Angels Association, Portugal
- John Chisholm, Chief Executive Officer, John Chisholm Ventures, USA
- Marco Fernandes, Chief Executive Officer, PME Investimentos, Portugal
- Till Helge Groß Co-founder, Course Concierge, USA
- Matt Koppers, Chief Executive Officer, Startup Manufactory, United Kingdom
- Sonny Leong, Chief Executive, Civil Service College Limited, United Kingdom
- Tom Simmons, Chief Executive Officer, Cambridge Glycoscience, United Kingdom
- Helga Valfells, Founding Partner, Crowberry Capital, Iceland

Chaired by

- Pranjal Sharma, Contributing Editor, BusinessWorld, India

Briefing Session: Whistle-blowing (Room D2)

Sometimes a dynamic response by a member of staff to an outside authority will generate a good outcome: sometimes governments and companies react violently. How can we ensure incumbent authorities act decisively to obviate the need for activists? Will the media learn to be responsible, factual and not inflammatory?

- Eric Ben-Artzi, Partner, J & B Consulting, Israel
- Jamison Firestone, Managing Partner, FD Advisory LLP, USA
- Michael Franck, Executive Producer, Parad Fakta, Finland
- Metin Guvener, Chairman, Triangle Group, United Kingdom
- Rodrigo Rodrigues, Partner & Strategic Ideator, TorkeCC, Portugal

Chaired by

- Wendy Dent, Journalist, Guardian US, USA

Optional: Pre-registration required

16.30-17.30 Press Conference with Co-Chairs: Inspiring our Future (Media Corner)

Meet the co-chairs of the Horasis Global Meeting as they share their expectations for the meeting and their view on the current state of the world. They will also illustrate their views on how to inspire the future.

Horasis: The Global Visions Community

Switzerland, CH-8280 Kreuzlingen, Burgstrasse 8, www.horasis.org

phone +41 79 305 3110, fax +41 71 686 50 59, mail richter@horasis.org

18.00-18.15 Welcome (Auditorium)

Horasis welcomes participants to the 4th annual edition of the Horasis Global Meeting. Horasis Chairman Frank-Jürgen Richter presents an overview of the Meeting. Vice Mayor of Cascais, Miguel Pinto Luz, welcomes participants on behalf of the host city.

Chaired by

- Frank-Jürgen Richter, Chairman, Horasis, Switzerland
- Miguel Pinto Luz, Vice Mayor, Cascais, Portugal

18.15-19.15 Grand Opening of the Horasis Global Meeting (Auditorium)

Delegates are invited to participate in the Grand Opening of the 2019 Horasis Global Meeting, one of the world's foremost annual gatherings of business leaders who interact with government and thought leaders. The meeting's theme 'Catalyzing the Benefits of Globalization' is chosen because we must at this time re-generate the idea of globalization in the face of growing populism. This will ensure the future is more stable and will lead young people to be inspirational in the future.

- Manuel Caldeira Cabral, Minister of Economy, Portugal
- Carlos Moedas, European Commissioner for Research, Science and Innovation, Belgium

Chaired by

- Frank-Jürgen Richter, Chairman, Horasis, Switzerland
- Miguel Pinto Luz, Vice Mayor, Cascais, Portugal

19.15-20.15 Plenary: Governing a World Out of Balance (Auditorium)

We are facing a world that is increasingly complex and treacherous – and ultimately out of balance. As technology and globalization transform our world, what models of governance and collaboration are needed to support an equitable future? How to develop a global order that will ensure peace and allow countries to play by the rules? And how to stay true to our core values as we work to build a more focused life for ourselves and our societies?

- Armen Sarkissian, President of Armenia, Armenia

Chaired by

- Richard Lister, News Correspondent, BBC News, United Kingdom

20.15-20.30 Walk from the Congress Center to the Hotel Palacio

20.30-22.00 Welcome Reception (Hotel Palacio)

Participants are invited to meet in an informal atmosphere to enjoy a light buffet dinner. From the hotel's terrace, we can enjoy the spectacular views of the gardens, the ocean and the City of Cascais.

22.00-23.00 Night Owl Session: Making More from Less (Hotel Palacio)

We live in a finite world with decreasing natural resources and soon fewer people. How do we learn to make more for all our well-being while consuming less? Can we do this while becoming more equal?

- Giulio Boccaletti, Chief Strategy Officer, The Nature Conservancy, United Kingdom
- Yoanna Gouchtchina, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Kozhya, USA
- Vasco Pedro, Chief Executive Officer & Co-Founder, Unbabel, Portugal
- Jack Risko, Chief Executive Officer, Windstar Capital Advisors, USA
- Rogerio Simoes, Chief Executive Officer, Unnon, United Kingdom

Chaired by

- Spriha Srivastava, Deputy News Editor, CNBC International, United Kingdom

7 April 2019

From 07.00 Registration (Estoril Congress Centre)

07.30-09.15 Breakfast Updates

We reflect upon the deconstruction of present-day globalization that could lead to a new more equal synthesis - as globalization has to stay for the sake of everyone

2019 is the Year to Renew the European Union (Room B)

The next elections to the European Parliament are held in May this year. Many commentators will look anxiously at the percentage of new members who are euro-critical. This could be a time of positive change – a blessing in disguise - for the EU, after BREXIT, to rebuild itself and affirm positive programs across all its reach. Will the EU become more federal? What are the prospects?

- Björn Berge, Director General, Council of Europe, France

Chaired by

- Anne McElvoy, Policy Editor, The Economist, United Kingdom

Re-globalizing Trade (Room C1)

Global trading was rocked by the failure of the WTO to secure the Doha Round. Is multi- or uni-lateral the best way to re-energize world trade? Where are the stumbling blocks? Is the world at the brink of trade war or can the free trade paradigm continue? What are the best leads to the future?

- Yonov Fred Agah, Deputy Director-General, World Trade Organization (WTO), Switzerland

Chaired by

- Raphael Minder, Correspondent, New York Times, Spain

America May Destabilize Globalization (Room C2)

The US economy, largest in the world, has upheld all others for decades: it has been the engine of globalization. Will this continue under Donald Trump or is he going to reverse decades of trade liberalization? What is needed to make US-led globalization truly strong again?

- Michael D. Brown, United States Senator, District of Columbia, USA
- John D. Feeley, Commentator, Univision; Former US Ambassador to Panama, USA

Chaired by

- Gary V. Litman, Vice President, U.S. Chamber of Commerce, USA

09.30-11.00 Dialogue Sessions

In these panels we will review trends that impinge on the worlds of commerce and business. What are the effects of Accords (global, regional: bi- or multi-lateral)? Whom do they benefit – and who is dis-benefited? Do they result in inequalities? And what are the policy options for supporting sustainable economic growth?

The Next Financial Crisis: No One Saw it Coming (Room B)

The last financial crisis has altered many of our financial systems: they broke and regulators stepped in. Are the new foundations really solid? What insights have investors already forgotten? Is the century's longest stock market run finally come to an end? How can we guard against a new crisis?

- Erik Berglof, Professor, London School of Economics and Political Science, United Kingdom
- Florence Bindelle, Secretary General, European Issuers, Belgium
- Nicholas Johnson, Chief Executive Officer, Economists Without Borders, Australia
- Peter V. Rajsingh, Partner, Alternative Investments, USA
- Alejandro Valenzuela, Chief Executive Officer, Banco Azteca, Mexico

Chaired by

- Riva Gold, Markets Reporter, The Wall Street Journal, United Kingdom

Assessing the Power of Immersive Technologies (Room C1)

Immersive technologies, namely virtual and augmented reality (VR/AR), give sense of being physically present in a non-physical world whereby the barrier between the real and virtual worlds is blurring. What is the transformative impact of VR/AR? And how can VR/AR help to make the world a better place to live on?

- Nathaniel Krasnoff, Partner, Wildcat Venture Partners, USA
- Andrew McGregor, Curator and Co-Producer, Mindshare LA, USA
- Serban Mogos, Co-founder, Eyeware, Switzerland
- Julien Weissenberg, Founder, VisualSense AI, Switzerland

Chaired by

- Mark Minevich, Founder, Going Global Ventures, USA

Devising Standards (Room C2)

As industrialization grew the benefits of standardization and then globalization were learned. Some commonality is in place but large gaps exist. How can nations agree to use common standards, what slows progress? Would standardized interchangeability reduce global costs?

- Eileen Aranda, President, Claremont Lincoln University, USA
- Jeffries Briginshaw, Chief Executive Officer, Transatlantic Business Britain, United Kingdom
- Denny Chared, Chairman, DC Finance, Israel
- Jeffrey Conrad, Chairman, Kinecta Federal Credit Union, USA
- Simon Galpin, Managing Director, Bahrain Economic Development Board, Bahrain
- Morgan Parnis, Chief Executive Officer, Business Leaders Malta, Malta
- Ray Walshe, Steering Group Member of Joint Initiative on Standardization (JIS), European Commission, Belgium

Chaired by

- Sean Cleary, Chairman, Strategic Concepts, South Africa

Our Personal Cornucopia: What drives us? (Room D1)

It can only be ourselves that creates our horn of plenty: we must all be innovative in this globalized world. What drives our success? And what are the values associated with our entrepreneurial journey? How to create a cornucopia of fortune and while being honest and ethical?

- Chris Arnold, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, World Merit, United Kingdom
- Nairouz Bader, Group Chief Executive Officer, Envision Partnership, UAE
- Aristide Dago, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, B2B Connexion, Cote D'Ivoire

- Akinori Niimi, Managing Partner, ACA Investments, Japan
- Seamus Smyth, Partner, Carter Lemon Camerons, United Kingdom

Chaired by

- Jorge Braga de Macedo, Former Minister of Finance, Portugal

Recycling Markets (Room E)

We consume more as our global population increases and as nations create stronger economies. Key resources are limited yet we trash everything old in land-fill sites. How can we become more ecological without increasing total costs? What behavioral changes are needed to actively recycle?

- Claude Beglé, President, SymbioSwiss, Switzerland
- Emrah Ercan, Director of Digital Strategy, Suez, USA
- Don Larson, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Sunshine Nut Company, Mozambique
- Nathaniel Peat, Chief Executive Officer, GeNNex Elite, United Kingdom
- Jack Sim, Founder, World Toilet Organization, Singapore
- Sein-Way Tan, Chairman, Green World City, Australia

Chaired by

- Bruno Roche, Chief Economist and Catalyst Managing Director, Mars Inc., Belgium

Session to be developed (Room F3)

Briefing Session: The Business of SDGs (Room D2)

In September 2015 all nations adopted the UN Sustainable Development Goals with a target in 2030. Why has progression been slow? How can we ensure government and business thinks clearly about the SDGs and devise ways to meet these more easily with a good outcome for all parties?

- Yilmaz Argüden, Chairman, ARGE Consulting, Turkey
 - Simone Filippini, Executive Director, Netherlands Institute for Multiparty Democracy, The Netherlands
 - Laura Giadorou-Koch, Chair, YPO Social Impact Networks, Argentina
 - Brice Lalonde, Former Minister of the Environment, France

- Chaired by*
- Robert W. van Zwieten, Chief Executive Officer, Private Capital Development LLC, USA

11.00-12.00 Opening Plenary: Catalyzing Globalization's Rebirth (Auditorium)

The globe's trade is highly interconnected but benefits are unequal: populists are angry. How can globalization's benefits be better distributed? Would this alone pacify populist demands? What changes might bring this about? This opening plenary will set the scene and provide intellectual rigor for the delegates to incorporate the inspirations to develop and sustain our future embracing everyone.

- José Manuel Barroso, Chairman Goldman Sachs International; Former President, European Commission, Portugal
 - Yves Daccord, Director-General, ICRC - International Committee of the Red Cross, Switzerland
 - Ann Winblad, Managing Partner, Hummer Winblad Venture Partners, USA
 - Deborah Wince-Smith, President, United States Council on Competitiveness, USA
- Chaired by*
- Nik Gowing, International Broadcaster, King's College London, United Kingdom

12.00–14.00 Lunches in Parallel, Speaker's Corner, Cascais Today

Lunch: Brexit and the UK Transitions (Room F1)

BREXIT is complete, now it is time to consider its transition phase. How will the UK trade develop – with the EU and globally? How will UK firms abide by global regulations and standards of inwards and outwards flows? Will the UK economy falter or not?

Chaired by

- Brian Caplen, Editor, The Banker, United Kingdom

Lunch: Country tbc (Room F2)

Networking Lunch (Foyer)

An opportunity to share ideas and insights in an informal setting.

Speakers' Corner (Foyer)

- Mihaela Ulieru, Chief Alchemist, Endor.com, USA

15.00-16.30 Boardroom sessions

In these sessions the participants shall consider how we can begin to pull together for the common good, to become less selfish. We are to map out where we may be headed and how we may plan progress coherently.

Nurturing Global Blockchains (Room B)

Cryptocurrency and its associated 'digital chaining' are not widely understood: regulators have mixed views. Is this the new way forward for globalization? Can its exploitation be made clearer and potentially equitable for all Boards and Oversight panels to cut out avarice? What is needed for its development?

- Vibor Cipan, Chief Executive Officer, RIDE Technologies, Croatia
- Veronica Garcia, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, BitLumens, USA
- Mark Mueller-Eberstein, Chief Executive Officer and Founder, Adgetec Corporation, USA
- Bulent Tekmen, Founder, Ininal, Turkey
- Jonah Wittkamper, Global Director, NEXUS, USA

Chaired by

Global Markets' Capital Regulation (Room C1)

Regulators have taken many years to create several editions of the Basel regulations to lessen the risk of global melt-down. By allowing easements are regulators admitting they were too onerous? How will the markets change? And will these changes introduce greater risk to global stability and reduce globalization?

- Olav zu Ermgassen, Managing Director, Ermgassen & Co, Germany
- Hedwige Nuyens, Managing Director, International Banking Federation, United Kingdom
- Theo Timmermans, Secretary General, European Financial Services Round Table, Belgium
- Georges Ugeux, Chief Executive Officer, Galileo Global Advisors, USA

Chaired by

- tbc

Venture Capitalists at Work (Room C2)

Venture capitalists are investors who either provides capital to start-up ventures that do not have access to equities markets. They promote innovation and long-term investment, accepting the risk of start-up firms. How to further embrace a culture of venture capital across countries and regions?

- Barbara Fischer, Founder, Arena Ventures, Switzerland
- Raphael Fraga, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Ita Capital, Brazil
- Martin Haemmig, Visiting Professor, Renmin University, China

Enriching Diversity in the Workplace (Room F3)

Research indicates that companies that shift away from a monolithic white male leadership outperform those that haven't changed their complexion: globalized firms with female leaders perform well. Yet, most measures of diversity have been largely unchanged for a decade. How to build a culture of diversity in the workplace thus bringing forward firms into the globalized world?

- Claire Chen, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, 51 Pegasi, USA
- Mahomed Iqbal, Managing Partner, The Partnership, Portugal

Speakers' Corner (Foyer)

The Speakers' Corner permit talks by enthusiasts who wish to state a point, describe new work, or present an idea.

17.00-18.00 Plenary: Navigating a World in Transition (Auditorium)

In the globalized world leaders must be visionaries to thrive. How can they best guide their nations to inspire citizens as the social, political and economic landscapes continually shift? What are the strategies of leaders for succeeding in the age of disruption?

- Sekai Holland, Political Activist, Zimbabwe
- Kristian Jensen, Minister of Finance, Denmark

Chaired by

- Lewis Goodall, Political Correspondent, Sky News, United Kingdom

Plenary: Be Inspired – Cities and Cluster Regions (Room D2)

Cities have grown according to needs, and clusters (of firms) are also created to develop precise outputs. Simple expansion develops routes and buildings increasingly unfit for purpose. Is it possible to redesign for greater effectiveness? Would it be better to totally rebuild nearby to cut upheaval costs? Are there exemplars?

- Marcelo Crivella, Mayor, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil
- Magnus Qvant, Secretary General, Resilient Regions Association, Sweden
- Bernd Vöhringer, Mayor, City of Sindelfingen, Germany

18.00-19.30 Dialogue Sessions: Present and Future Needs

We are assailed daily by the media about new catastrophes many of which we might have avoided. In these sessions we look at our present demands, our limited resources and ponder our future. How might governments and especially businesses lift us from gloom to a brighter future?

Corporate Strategies for Globalization (Room B)

Not many firms take the leap to internationalization, fewer become true multi-nationals. Why is this? Is it a fear, or just logical to remain as a big home-based company? What are the strategies needed to become a cross-border player, and onwards to globalization?

- Bo Inge Andersson, Chief Executive Officer, Yazaki Europe, Germany
- Ali Bilaloglu, Chief Executive Officer, Dogus Otomotiv, Turkey
- Krishna Bodanapu, Chief Executive Officer, Cyient, India
